

Juraj Dubovský

Managing Associate

Juraj Dubovský represents clients in complex judicial and arbitral proceedings in the Czech Republic, Slovakia and abroad including cross-border disputes.

He advises clients on IP protection matters, protection against unfair competition, protection of personal rights and complex technical disputes. Furthermore, he advises on out-of-court dispute settlement, insolvency, restructuring and administrative judiciary matters.

Prior to joining our law firm in 2014, Juraj worked for many years at major international law firms in Prague. He also briefly worked at an international law firm based in Washington, D.C. Juraj also worked in the field of international development and humanitarian law in Israel and Slovakia.

Transactions

- advising on numerous complex international disputes in the energy sector (renewable sources, gas supply, international acquisitions)
- advising on numerous complex disputes in the telecommunications and media sector (disputes relating to broadcasting rights on the European single market, damages based on abuse of dominance, and M&A/squeeze-out disputes)
- advising a leading international IT company (protection of personal rights and personal data)
- advising a leading retail food company in connection with complex commercial disputes
- advising a leading international bank on the recovery of claims against a local lottery company
- advising a major Czech company (trademark abuse and defence against unfair competition practices of other undertakings)
- advising on numerous disputes for damages ensuing from the acquisition of one of the Czech Republic's largest banks
- advising on IP/IT issued (including advice to leading IT and telecommunication companies on strategic distribution and licensing agreements and on regulatory and competition matters)

Membership in professional associations

Czech Bar Association
Slovak Bar Association
Young International Council for Commercial Arbitration

Languages

Czech, English, Slovak

Education

Charles University, Faculty of Law, Prague (2007), Mgr. (Master of Laws)
Queen's University Belfast, scholarship
Georgetown University, Washington, D.C., scholarship

E: juraj.dubovsky@havelpartners.cz

T: +420 255 000 406