

Milan Hulmák Of Counsel

Milan Hulmák joined our law firm as Of Counsel in 2012.

He graduated from the Faculty of Law of the University of West Bohemia in Plzeň in 1998. He completed his post-graduate studies by defending a thesis entitled 'Contracting Process'. Since 1998, he has focused on teaching substantive and procedural civil law, first at the Department of Private Law at the Faculty of Law of the University of West Bohemia in Plzeň, and currently at the Department of Civil and Employment Law at the Law Faculty of Palacký University in Olomouc. He also works as a lecturer at the Czech Judicial Academy and the Slovak Judicial Academy. For many years, he has participated in projects for the Czech Science Foundation and the Slovak Research and Development Agency.

Since 2000, he has been a member of the working committees of the Czech Government's Legislative Council for Private Law. He was also a member of the Ministry of Justice's recodification committee for the preparation of a new civil code, and is currently a member of the Ministry of Justice's committee for the application of new civil legislation.

Milan Hulmák is the author of 'Contracting Process in Civil Law', a co-author of commentaries to the Civil Code, and the author or a co-author of many other professional publications and articles relating to private law.

In his legal practice, he is an attorney-at-law and an arbitrator for the Arbitration Court attached to the Economic Chamber of the Czech Republic and the Agricultural Chamber of the Czech Republic, and an arbitrator registered with the Ministry of Justice. He has acted as an expert in numerous arbitration proceedings.

E: milan.hulmak@havelpartners.cz

T: +420 737 416 833