

Adam Karban

Associate

Adam Karban specialises in real estate and construction law, and mergers and acquisitions.

In the area of real estate, Adam has been involved in numerous transactions involving both acquisitions and divestitures of companies holding real estate in the Czech Republic, including developable land, department stores, office buildings, and hotels. He has also advised clients in connection with negotiations of leases for commercial industrial facilities, and private persons on acquisitions of flats, houses, or holiday homes.

Before becoming an associate, Adam had worked in our law firm as junior associate from 2014, and as legal assistant before that. He had also worked as junior associate in the real estate team of one of the largest international law firms with offices in Prague.

Transactions

- advising on the construction and subsequent lease of commercial industrial facilities in one of the largest industrial parks in the Czech Republic
- advising on negotiations concerning the lease of the largest commercial premises in the Czech Republic
- advising a major Czech investor on the acquisition of a company owning land for industrial development
- advising a foreign investor on the acquisition of a company owning a luxury hotel in Prague
- advising an investor on the sale of a major office building in Prague
- advising an investor on the sale of a company owning land for residential development in Brno
- advising a foreign investor on the sale of a shopping centre in Ostrava
- advising a major investor on the acquisition of a company operating the second-largest international airport in the Czech Republic
- advising the owner of a shopping centre with respect to lease agreements for retail units in that centre

Membership in professional organisations

Czech Bar Association
Board of Arbitrators of Czech Futsal Association (SFCR)

Languages

Czech, English, German

Education

Charles University, Faculty of Law, Prague (2014), Mgr. (Master of Laws)

E: adam.karban@havelpartners.cz

T: +420 255 000 165