

Jiří Prokop

Associate

Jiří Prokop specialises in litigation, including the enforcement of not easily enforceable loans and other claims, enforcement legislation, and advice relating to insolvency law.

In litigation, he focuses on the administration and enforcement of the claims of major banking institutions in the Czech Republic, non-banking entities, and important Czech companies.

Before joining our law firm, Jiří worked for almost two years at a Brno-based company, where he focused primarily on contract law, dispute resolution, and debt collection.
