

Mgr. Martin Šlampa

Senior Associate

Martin Šlampa specialises in litigation, specifically representation in disputes before civil courts, in arbitration proceedings and administrative justice.

In civil disputes, he focuses in particular on damages, disputes arising from contracts for work, disputes concerning real estate and disputes arising from unfair competition.

In administrative justice, Martin has recently participated in disputes concerning excise taxes, construction law and competition law.

Before joining our law firm in 2016, Martin worked as an assistant to judge JUDr. Passer of the Supreme Administrative Court. At the Supreme Administrative Court, he dealt with construction and land law, social security law, taxes, imposing administrative sanctions and generally administrative law as such.

Significant disputes

- Representation of an international sport organisation in a dispute over an action challenging its internal financial regulation
- Disputes arising from excise tax guarantees
- Disputes arising from building design and construction activities
- Disputes concerning the use of inland ports
- Dispute concerning the use of telecommunication devices
- Disputes following a significant public contract (administrative justice, damages)
- Investigation of the Office for the Protection of Competition – actions against unlawful intervention

Membership in professional associations

Czech Bar Association

Languages

Czech, English

Education

Masaryk University, Faculty of Law, Brno (2014), Master's degree (Mgr.)

E: martin.slampa@havelpartners.cz

T: +420 255 000 151