

Roman Světnický

Senior Associate

Roman Světnický specialises in competition law, and public sector and regulatory matters. He has been working with the firm in various positions since 2010.

In the field of competition law, Roman advises clients on cartel issues, abuse of dominance, competition assessments of mergers and acquisitions, and state aid and abuse of significant market power. In his practice, Roman has represented numerous clients in proceedings before the Czech Office for the Protection of Competition and administrative courts. Roman also advises clients in connection with analyses of planned projects from the perspective of compliance with competition law.

In addition, has wide experience in advising in the field of compliance. In our firm, he also participates in preparing and conducting competition audits, professional training in competition law for employees and management of major companies, and preparing tailored compliance manuals.

Transactions

- advising a major international group on the acquisition of control of a domestic company, selling daily consumption products
- advising a major internet company on issues of unilateral conduct
- antitrust audit of a major international manufacturer of small household appliances
- advising a major international group on the acquisition of control of a domestic company, providing public bus transport services
- representing a client in connection with an alleged cartel agreement among construction companies
- advising a major international group on the acquisition of control of a domestic company manufacturing detergents
- providing ongoing advice to Europe's leading petrochemical group, particularly in the field of abusive conduct and concentration of undertakings
- representing a city authority in the case of an alleged distortion of competition by a public administration authority
- representing a major multinational group operating in the sale of foodstuffs and daily consumer goods in the case of an alleged abuse of significant market power

Membership in professional associations

Czech Bar Association

Languages

Czech, English

Education

Masaryk University, Faculty of Law, Brno (2012), Mgr. (Master of Laws)

E: roman.svetnický@havelpartners.cz

T: +420 545 423 464