

Martina Jelínková

Tax Adviser

Martina Jelínková specialises in personal income tax, social security and health insurance.

Her advice regarding personal income tax entails in particular preparation of tax returns involving international taxation aspects and advice on the taxation of income of expats, including the setting of payroll agendas or application of double tax treaties. Her secondary specialisation covers advice on employment benefits, assignment structures, taxation of capital gains and taxation of income of self-employed persons. In the field of social security and health insurance, she focuses on the application of international regulations.

Before joining us in 2019, Martina had worked for almost nine years in the tax department at Ernst & Young, where she mainly specialised in expat-related issues of personal income tax and related areas. During her time at Ernst & Young, Martina was also posted as intern in the Global Mobility department in London.

Examples of tax advisory services

- tax advice to Czech companies, their foreign employees, as well as Czech employees posted abroad
- preparation of personal income tax returns
- communication with expats regarding the set-up of their assignment, Czech tax regulations and terms of particular double tax treaties (orientation calls)
- advice on applicability of social security and health insurance schemes
- advice on global mobility and assignment structures

Membership in professional associations

Czech Chamber of Tax Advisers(KDPČR)
Personal Income Tax Section of KDPČR

Languages

Czech, English

Education

University of Economics in Prague, Faculty of Finance and Accounting, Prague(2009), Ing. (Master's degree)

---

E: martina.jelinkova@havelpartners.cz

T: +420 255000 316