

Martin Ralbovský Executive Manager, CCS

Martin Ralbovský is the Executive Manager of the collection agency Cash Collectors. He specialises in development, IT, reporting, enforcement strategies, and procedures for judicial and extra-judicial enforcement.

Before joining Cash Collectors, he had worked at GE Money Bank from 2009, first as analyst responsible for development and reporting of enforcement strategies, and later as manager responsible, among other tasks, for judicial and extra-judicial debt collection and enforcement processes, outsourcing of enforcement of live and terminated agreements through third-party collection agencies and field collectors for GE Money Bank and GE Money Auto, including insolvencies, inheritance, and sale of claims.

Languages

Czech, English, German

Education

Charles University, Faculty of Mathematics and Physics, Prague (2006), Mgr. (Master's degree)
University of Economics, Faculty of Informatics and Statistics, Prague (2009), Ph.D.

E: martin.ralbovsky@cashcollectors.cz

T: +420 725 948 252